ROYAL PROGRAMME IN MYSORE

29th January to 4th February 1906.

59

Arrival of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales at Mysore.

Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales will arrive at the Mysore City Railway Station by special train at 3-30 P. M., on Monday, the 29th January 1906. The arrival will be public.

The Royal saloon will be drawn up immediately opposite the first main entrance. A pavilion will be erected on this portion of the platform which will be decorated.

A royal salute of 31 guns will be fired from the Fort as the train enters the Station.

A Guard of Honour of the Mysore Imperial Service Troops, dismounted, will be drawn up on the railway platform on the left of the Royal Party. The officers and gentlemen to be presented will also be on the left, while the Press correspondents and other officers will be on the right. His Highness' band will be in attendance and will be posted in a convenient position near the railing so as to play both inside and outside.

Their Royal Highnesses will be received by His Highness the Maharaja with the principal officers and Sirdars of the Mysore State and by the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore and Staff.

Full Dress Uniform will be worn by such as are entitled to it. Others will appear in morning dress; if in Indian costume, wear black long coat, white lace turban, uttariyam, trousers and black boots.

After presentation of officers and gentlemen His Royal Highness will inspect the Guard of Honour.

Outside the Railway Station, a second Guard of Honour of the Mysore Infantry with band and colours will be drawn up and will salute His Royal Highness as he leaves the Station.

The Royal party will proceed to the Government House accompanied by His Highness the Maharaja and escorted by His Highness' Bodyguard, the Imperial Service Cavalry and the Local Regiment.

His Highness the Maharaja's Insignia will be paraded by the side of the road outside the Railway Station. The main road to the Government House will be lined by the spearmen of His Highness the Maharaja's Rachewar and Bhale forces, by men of the Mysore Infantry and by sawars of the Mysore Horse. The road leading from the Dufferin Gate to the Government House will be lined by the Mysore Company of the Bangalore Rifle Volunteers.

The Police will keep order along the entire route and guard the roads, assisted by silledars.

The procession from the Railway Station to the Government House will pass along the following route:—

Start from the Railway Station, proceed by the Prince of Wales' Road, enter Sayaji Rao Road, turn into Albert Victor Road near the Memorial Fountain, turn into Dodpet, leaving the Clock-Tower to the left, proceed up to the Central Police Station, turn to the east and drive along the Prince of Wales' Road and entering by the west gate, reach the Government House, by the north-east road.

Along the route—

(a) The students of the several local educational institutions will assemble and greet Their Royal Highnesses from their respective galleries on the Sayaji Rao Road adjoining the site of the Chamarajendra Technical Institute.

(b) The leading townsmen will assemble in the Municipal pavilion near the Town Hall and make obeisance to Their Royal Highnesses as they pass.

(c) Native ladies will view the procession from the upper story of the Rangacharlu Memorial Hall, and European ladies from the balcony of the Masonic lodge.

A royal salute of 31 guns will be fired from the Fort as Their Royal Highnesses arrive at the Government House.

A Guard of Honour of the Mysore Infantry with Band and Colours will be drawn up at the Government House.

On the approach of the Royal carriage, the Guard of Honour will present arms to Their Royal Highnesses.

The Chief Commandant, Mysore State Troops, will himself ride on the right side of His Royal Highness' carriage. The Inspector-General of Police will ride on the left side of the carriage. The Commandant of the Imperial Service Troops will ride on the right of Her Royal Highness' carriage, while a special Native Superintendent will ride by the left side of Her Royal Highness' carriage.

The roads forming the procession route will be blocked from 2-30 P.M. to 4-30 P.M. at suitable points, and only ticket-holders will be allowed to pass till 3 P.M.

The Railway authorities will keep the platform entirely clear from 2 P.M. to 3-30 P.M.

Reception of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, at Mysore.

At 4-30 P.M., on Monday, the 29th January 1906, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will receive a visit from His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

His Highness will be escorted to and from the Royal residence by a party of his own Bodyguard and Cavalry.

The following will be the route from the Palace to the Royal residence and back :—

Leave the Fort by the west gate, enter the Sayaji Rao Road, turn into Albert Victor Road near the Memorial Fountain, proceed up to the east gate of the Curzon Park, thence via Kuppanna's garden drive to the Government House.

A Guard of Honour of the Maharaja's Troops will be drawn up in front of the Royal residence and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure. The entrance road to the Royal residence will be lined by the Maharaja's Cavalry.

A salute of 21 guns will be fired from the Fort on the arrival and departure of the Maharaja.

Full dress uniform will be worn.

Return Visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, at Mysore.

At 5-15 P.M. on Monday the 29th January 1906, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will return the visit of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore at the Jaganmohan Palace.

His Royal Highness will leave his residence at 5-5 P.M., under a royal salute of 31 guns fired from the Fort, with an estort of Imperial Service Troops and attended by the Members of His Royal Highness' Staff.

The Maharaja's troops will line the approach to the Palace and will salute as His Royal Highness passes.

A Guard of Honour of Imperial Service Troops will be drawn up at the Palace and will salute His Royal Highness on arrival and departure.

A royal salute of 31 guns will be fired from the Fort on the arrival and departure of His Royal Highness.

Full dress uniform will be worn.

The following will be the route from the Government House to the Jaganmohan Palace and back :—

Start from the Government House, drive along the south-western road, join the Residency Road by the serpentine road in the Park, and proceed up to the tunnel of the Dodkere tank-feeder, enter Curzon Park by the east gate, join Victor's Road; turn to the south at the Memorial fountain, drive along the Sayaji Rao Road, turn to the west near the southern gate of the Curzon Park; pass along the Lakshmivilas Road and enter Jaganmohan Palace.

Return Route.

Same route up to His Highness the late Maharaja's statue, then turn to the north, drive on to the northern gate of the Curzon Park, turn to the east, pass along Yalandur Jahgirdar's street, join Church Road and enter Dufferin Gate on to the Government House by the north-east road.

Tuesday, 30th January.

Laying the Foundation Stone of the Chamarajendra Technical Institute.

1. At 10-30 A.M. on Tuesday, the 30th January 1906, His Royal Highness will lay the foundation stone of the Chamarajendra Technical Institute.

2. Invited guests will be in their seats by 10 A.M., entering the pandal from the Prince of Wales' Road.

3. No carriages other than those from the Government House and the Palace will be allowed to pass along the Residency Road, the Albert Victor Road and the Sayaji Rao Road after 10 A.M.

4. Their Royal Highnesses, accompanied by Sir Walter Lawrence, will leave the Government House at 10-20 A.M.

5. The Royal carriage will be accompanied by a Field Officer's Escort, and the Inspector-General of Police will ride by the side of the carriage.

6. Their Royal Highnesses will arrive at 10-30 A.M., viâ the Residency Road, Curzon Park and the Sayaji Rao Road. They will be received at the Sayaji Rao Road pandal by His Highness the Maharaja, the Resident and the Staff, the Dewan and the Schools and Reception Committees.

7. The Royal carriage will be drawn up in the pandal.

8. A Guard of Honour furnished by the Imperial Service Troops with band will be drawn up near the pandal and will receive Their Royal Highnesses with the usual honors.

9. The Dewan will then read a brief account of the objects of the institution and His Highness the Maharaja will then request His Royal Highness to lay the foundation stone.

10. The foundation stone with inscription which will be kept ready beneath a small pavilion in front of the pandal, will be laid by His Royal Highness.

11. After a brief interval the carriage will be brought up into the pandal and Their Royal Highnesses, accompanied by Sir Walter Lawrence and attended by the escort and the Inspector-General of Police, will return to the Government House by the same route.

12. Admission at this function will be by tickets.

13. Dress to be worn on the occasion :— 62

(i) Military Officers—Full Dress Uniform.

(ii) European Civil Officers—Morning Dress.

(iii) Native Officers—Durbar dress (black long coat, white trousers white laced turban and laced uttariyam).

Visit to Seringapatam.

At 1 P.M., Their Royal Highnesses will motor to Seringapatam. The route will be as follows :—

Leave Government House by the north gate, drive along the Travellers, Bungalow Road, join the Seringapatam-Mysore Road and proceed to Ganjam. Thence drive to the tombs of Haidar Ali and Tippu Sultan, where the Royal party will alight at the gate and be received by the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, and conducted to the tombs. Thence drive to the Dariah Dowlat Bagh, sometime the residence of Duke of Wellington, and view the paintings on the walls. After lunch at the Dariah Dowlat, drive to Seringapatam, enter the fort by the Ganjam gate and stop at the Masjid-i-Allah. After visiting the same, drive to the newly discovered dungeon, the site where Tippu fell, the water gate and the Sandal Koti, where the children will assemble under the pandal and greet Their Royal Highnesses with a song of welcome, and the leading townspeople will make their obeisance.

Thence drive past the Memorial Chattram to the dungeon, the ruins of Delhi bridge, the Breach, Haviland's arch, and return to Mysore by the south gate of the Fort without stoppage anywhere.

The State Dinner at the Government House at 8 p.m.

There will be a State Dinner at 8 P.M.

After dinner, there will be a display of fireworks, near the Government House.

Wednesday, 31st January 1906 10 a.m.

Journey to Shooting Camp.

At 10 A.M., the Royal Party will leave in motor cars for the shooting camp at Karepur, 44 miles from Mysore, accompanied by His Highness the Maharaja. The route to the Shooting Camp will be along the Residency Road, on the Dodkere tank bund, turn to the west at the Skew Bridge, drive along the Chamaraj Road (100-feet road), up to the square at the junction of the Viceroy and Chamaraj Roads, then drive along the Viceroy Road, join the Chatnahalli Road through the new hamlet. Their Royal Highnesses will be escorted by four troopers of the Imperial Service Lancers on motor bicycles.

The route will be kept clear by the Police and where necessary, by both the Police and the Military.

Cross roads will be specially guarded.

All traffic will be stopped along the road during the appointed hours, and special arrangements will be made to facilitate the motor journey.

Thursday, Friday & Saturday.
1st, 2nd and 3rd February 1906.

Halt at the Shooting Camp.

Sunday, 4th February 1906.—Return to Mysore.

Their Royal Highnesses will leave the Shooting Camp at 8 A.M. in motor cars and arrive at Mysore at 11 A.M. The route will be the same as the one taken to reach the Camp.

Banquet and Reception.

At 8 P. M. on the 5th February 1906 there will be a Banquet followed by a Reception at the Residency. Guests will enter the Residency by the main gate, and are particularly requested to bring and show their invitation cards at the gate.

Presentation of a new Standard to the Carabiniers and Inspection of the Station Hospital.

---

1. His Royal Highness, attended by the Royal Staff and a travelling escort furnished by the 30th Lancers (Gordon's Horse), will leave the Residency at 8 A.M., on Tuesday, the 6th February 1906, and ride to the Parade Ground, where the Carabiniers will be presented with a new Standard.

2. Her Royal Highness, attended by another travelling escort, will drive to the Parade Ground.

3. The route followed will be the Cubbon Road and on to the Parade Ground at the junction of Cubbon Road with Cavalry Road.

4. The Regiment (dismounted) will be formed up in line facing north with the Band in rear of the centre.

5. The old Standard with escort of one Squadron Sergeant-Major and two men will be formed up on the right of the line. The new Standard, cased, with escort of one Squadron Sergeant-Major and two men will be formed up in rear of the centre of the line. The Bishop of Madras with the choir behind him will be facing the Regiment on the left rear of the silver drums which will be placed opposite the centre of the line.

6. The Princess of Wales' carriage will draw up behind the silver drums.

7. The Prince will be met on the Parade Ground by the General Officer Commanding and Staff. His Royal Highness will ride up to the right rear of the drums and be received with the royal salute from the Regiment, and dismount and advance a few paces.

8. After the royal salute, the escort with the old Standard will march from right to left in front of the line, and be saluted by the regiment, the band playing "Auld lang Syne." The party will then form up in rear of the centre.

9. The flank squadrons will then shoulder inwards and the regiment form three sides of a square.

10. The new Standard with escort, and Subaltern Officer detailed to receive the Standard, will move out from the centre and face His Royal Highness at 20 paces distance.

11. The Standard bearer (Squadron Sergeant-Major) will advance and hand the cased Standard to the Second in Command who will uncase it and lay it against the silver drums.

12. The Bishop of Madras will then move forward to the drums and conduct the consecration service.

13. Directly after the consecration the officer to receive the new Standard will advance. The Second in Command will hand the Standard to His Royal Highness who will present it to the officer, who will receive it, sinking on his right knee. The officer will then rise.

14. The Regiment will then re-form line. At the same time the officer will turn about, advance to the escort, and hand the Standard to the Standard bearer; he will then wheel the escort about, to face the regiment.

15. The Regiment will salute the Standard, the band playing "God save the King," during which the Standard and escort will march back to its place in line.

64

16. His Royal Highness will then leave, after receiving the royal salute and will drive with the Princess to the Station Hospital, the route being down Cubbon Road from the point where it crosses Cavalry Road, along East Parade, Trinity Road, past the Carabiniers' Sergeants' Mess to the Station Hospital.

17. Their Royal Highnesses will be met at the Station Hospital by the General Officer Commanding, Bangalore Brigade, and two Staff Officers, the Colonel on the Staff Commanding the Infantry Brigade and one Staff Officer, the Principal Medical Officer, Bangalore Brigade, the Officer Commanding Station Hospital and Medical Officers on duty at the Hospital.

18. After the inspection of the Hospital, Their Royal Highnesses will drive round the Barracks, back to Trinity Church and down South Parade, Cubbon Park, past the Mysore Public Office buildings and on to the Residency by the Cubbon Park entrance.

19. The route will be under the supervision of the Civil and Military Station and City Police within the limits of their respective jurisdictions.

Special Police regulations showing the routes by which the public should arrive and the arrangements on the ground, will be published separately.

Garden Party.

At 4-30 P.M., on the 6th February 1906, there will be a Garden Party at the Residency. Guests will enter the Residency by the main gate, and are particularly requested to bring and show their invitation cards at the gate.

Departure of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales from Bangalore.

1. Their Royal Highnesses will leave the Bangalore City Railway Station at 10-30 A.M., on Wednesday, the 7th February 1906.

2. The departure will be private.

3. A royal salute of 31 guns will be fired as the train leaves the Station.

4. Their Royal Highnesses accompanied by Sir Walter Lawrence will leave the Residency at 10-10 A.M., and will be escorted by a Travelling Escort consisting of one Subaltern, one Sergeant and 30 rank and file of the Carabiniers and a Durbar Superintendent of Police.

5. The route, which will be the same as for the arrival, will be under the supervision of the Civil and Military Station and City Police within their respective jurisdictions.

6. Their Royal Highnesses will alight at the overbridge entrance where they will be met by the Resident and First Assistant Resident and the General Officer Commanding and one Staff Officer.

7. The British Railway Police will keep order at the Station and the Railway authorities will be requested to keep the platform clear from 10 A. M. until the departure of the Royal train.

8. The Royal saloon will be drawn up immediately opposite the overbridge.

9. The District Superintendent of Police, Civil and Military Station, will accompany the train to Hindupur where he will formally hand over charge to the Madras Police Officer deputed for the purpose.

10. Undress uniform will be worn.

THE RESIDENT'S OFFICE,
Bangalore, 13th January 1906.

(Sd). R. M. KING,
First Assistant Resident.

By Order,
B. K. VENKATA VARADA IYENGAR,
Secy. to Govt. of Mysore, Gen. & Rev. Dept.